

No Guarantee of Services

Lifelong Balance does not guarantee that any services or medications will be provided to you until you have undergone the full initial sign up process and physician's examination.

At the physician's discretion only, you will be provided medications and/or services during the course of your program at Lifelong Balance.

The sign up fee is non-refundable regardless of the physician's determination on the types of services and medications that you receive during your program.

Patient Signature and Date

Witness Signature and Date